Service & Learning Mission Trip

March 12-17, 2018

Travel and Explore

Love mission? Enjoy learning about the important work the Presbyterian Church (USA) and others are doing to minister to the needs of their neighbors? This trip is for you!

This charter bus tour, led by Nancy Hodgkins and Sue Hamilton, will provide participants an opportunity to travel with their church family, and to learn about the important work of Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, Heifer International, local congregations, and service agencies. We will also take advantage of our location to explore local points of interest.

Trip Highlights

- Comfortable charter bus travel
- Daily worship and group reflection
- The Presbyterian Center in Louisville
- A service day at the Presbyterian Disaster Assistance Distribution Center
- Heifer Ranch and Heifer Village
- Lunch on Beale St. in Memphis
- A night with an atrium view at the Opryland Hotel
- Thistle Farms in Nashville

Lodging and Cost

The group will stay one night at the Hampton Inn in Franklin, TN, and four nights in the Hampton Inn in downtown Little Rock (within walking distance of the river market district). Our final night will be at the Gaylord Opryland Hotel in Nashville.

Cost: $900 plus one meal a day (Single rooms available for additional cost.)

Included in this cost: Charter bus and experienced driver, five night hotel stay, all program fees, and breakfast and lunch each day.

A detailed itinerary will be provided prior to departure.
