

Westminster Lecture on Faith & Civic Life

Friday, September 28, 7:30 p.m.

Community Panel Saturday, September 29, 9:30 a.m.

Coffee and Doughnut Fellowship at 8:30 a.m. prior to Community Panel

Join us Friday, September 28, 2018, when The Reverend Jim Wallis will present Westminster Presbyterian Church's first annual Lecture on Faith & Civic Life. The event begins at 7:30 pm at Westminster Presbyterian Church, 125 N. Wilkinson St., Dayton, Ohio.

A panel, composed of area faith and civic leaders, will share the stage with Mr. Wallis the following morning, Saturday, September 29, at 9:30 a.m., also at Westminster.

Jim Wallis is president and founder of Sojourners in Washington, DC, a non-profit faith-based organization, network, and movement whose mission statement calls for "putting faith into action for social justice." Wallis is a bestselling author, public theologian, national preacher, social activist, and international commentator on ethics and public life. Two of his more recent books, The (Un)Common Good, and America's Original Sin, will form the basis for the Friday night lecture and Saturday morning panel discussion.

The Reverend Jim Wallis will present Westminster Presbyterian Church's first annual Lecture on Faith & Civic Life.
