The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever touching the bottom.

—St. Jerome

The Bible is lowly on one's entrance, but lofty on further advance, and all the while veiled over in mysteries. But at that time in my life, I could not enter into it. I had too much conceit to accept the simplicity of the Scriptures, and not enough insight to penetrate their depths. It is indeed the nature of the Scriptures that their truth grows within a person as the person grows from childhood. But at that time, I was too proud to become as a child.

O quanta qualia

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (in unison)

Almighty God,
you poured your Spirit upon gathered disciples
creating bold tongues, open ears,
and a new community of faith.

We confess that we hold back the force of your Spirit among us.
We do not listen for your word of grace,
speak the good news of your love,
or live as a people made one in Christ.

Have mercy on us, O God.

Transform our lives by the power of your Spirit, and fill us with a desire to know and do your word for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

(Silence is kept for personal confession.)

Lord, have mer-cy up-on us. Christ, have mer-cy up-on us. Lord, have mer-cy up-on us.

PRESENTATION OF BIBLES AND HYMNALS

The Reverend Denise C. Weaver

ANTHEM - "Do You Hear the Shepherd?"

Kimberly Ingram

*Do you hear the shepherd?
Calling clear and strong?
Do you hear the shepherd?
Do you hear the song?*

One by one, he calls each by name:
All are in his sight.
His clear song quiets all our fear
Through the cold and dark of night.
When he speaks, our hearts leap with joy,
For we know the shepherd's voice.
As we walk through the narrow gate,
Our trusting hearts rejoice!

The Reverend Dr. Richard L. Baker, Jr.

From Sword Drills to the Deepest Depths: The Scriptures as Life-Long Love

Focus: "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord. For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth . . . so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth . . ." —Isaiah 55:8,10,11

LITANY OF FAITH

From the Westminster Catechisms and
The Study Catechism of the Presbyterian Church (USA)

People: To glorify God and enjoy God forever.

Leader: What rule has God given to direct us to this end?

People: The Word of God contained in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments.

Leader: How do we know that the Scriptures contain the Word of God?

People: By the Spirit of God bearing witness, by and with the Scriptures, in our hearts.

Leader: What do the Scriptures principally teach?

People: That Jesus Christ is the one Word of God whom we are to hear, and whom we are to trust and obey in life and death. The Scriptures deepen our love, knowledge, and service of him as our Savior and Lord.

All: We give thanks and praise to God as made known through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Head Usher: Tom Perry
Church Office Receptionist: Donna Shell

Music Participants: Westminster Choir – Calvin Choir (grades 3-6; John Neely, Director; Christi Wilson, Pianist) – John Neely is Organist-Director.

Today's Music: Brian Wren wrote the words to "Deep in the Shadows of the Past" (Hymn 330) in 1973 for New Church Praise (1975). According to Wren, this hymn "tells the story of the Bible in a manner acceptable to different beliefs about its inspiration." The "Bible as the 'classic model' of and for the Christian faith" drawn from James Barr's The Bible in the Modern World (1973) served as the basis for the hymn. The first three stanzas illustrate the biblical story, and the fourth describes its compilation and emphasizes the comfort and strength a believer gains from the "working model of our faith."

Brian Wren (b. 1936) is an internationally published hymn-poet whose work appears in hymnals of all Christian traditions. He was ordained in Britain's United Reformed Church. He is now Professor Emeritus of Worship and served as the first holder of the John and Miriam Conant Professorship in Worship at Columbia Theological Seminary.

The tune Shepherds' Pipes was composed by Annabeth McClelland Gay in 1952. Every Christmas the Gays sent an original Christmas song to their friends. In 1952 it was Annabeth's turn to compose the music for which her husband would supply the words. "This tune 'dropped out of the blue' one evening while I was at the piano. Bill said, 'Sounds like shepherds' pipes.'" And so a new hymn tune was born!

Westminster Prayer Ministry

To ask for prayer, fill out the Prayer Request card in the pew rack and place it in the offering plate or take it to the Church Office. Requests for prayer received are shared with the Westminster Email Prayer Ministry Team and remain confidential. Please secure permission before sharing an individual's name, or use generic words such as friend, parent, child, or spouse.

Requests for prayer can also be emailed to wpcprayers@westminsterdayton.org.

To join the Westminster prayer ministry team, please email wpcprayers@westminsterdayton.org.

Add your prayer to our Prayer Wall, located in the Sanctuary near the Chancel on the east wall. You will find blank prayer papers and pencils in the four mini-desks built into the wall. Write your prayer on the paper, roll up the paper, and insert it between the bricks of the wall. These prayers are completely private, between you and God. After the first Sunday of each month, the wall will be cleared and all prayer papers will be respectfully burned. Prayer Wall postcards are now available to send to someone for whom you prayed. They are located in the Prayer Wall mini-desks and the Narthex.

I will call upon you, O Lord; come quickly to me: give ear to my voice when I call to you. Let my prayer be counted as incense before you. Psalm 141:1-2a.

Wednesdays in October

5:15 p.m. - Class (West Parlor)

6:00 p.m. - Taizé Service (Sanctuary)

6:40 p.m. - Light Supper (Fellowship Hall)

Childcare available (Infant through Kindergarten)

Celtic Spirituality Taught by Denise Weaver

This class will explore the main characteristics of Celtic spirituality through the centuries, the tragic displacement of Celtic spirituality in Britain, the richness of Celtic art and spirituality, and offer resources for learning to pray in new ways informed by the Celtic sense that God is present in creation, in the events of our lives, and in our hearts. This class will meet in the West Parlor.

Taizé Service and Light Supper

A meditative service of songs and prayers in candlelight.
All are welcome.

The word "Taizé" may be unfamiliar to some. For many people the name "Taizé" evokes a certain style of singing that has become popular in more and more churches, retreat centers, campus religious groups, and even seminaries. For some the word also suggests retreats and gatherings which attract large numbers of young adults. Still others are aware that Taizé is in fact an ecumenical community located in a small village in eastern France. This community has produced some of the most beautiful and moving music that has ever been composed for participation by the whole community of faith (congregation, cantor, clergy, and instrumentalists).

Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (PDA) urges your support for those affected by the recent hurricanes, earthquake in Haiti; monsoon flooding in Kerala state, India; earthquakes resulting in a tsunami and volcanic eruption in Indonesia; and Super Typhoon Mangkhut in the Philippines, China and surrounding areas.

Years of recovery lie ahead, and your commitment will help PDA extend the hands of Christ. Will you stand in the "GAP" for the people affected by these catastrophic natural disasters?—Give. Act. Pray.

GIVE: PDA's emergency response and specialization in long-term recovery is fueled by your generous gifts.

ACT: Assemble Gift of the Heart kits for survivors in the affected areas — hygiene kits and cleanup buckets are especially needed. For more information, go to pda.pcusa.org/page/kits.

PRAY: In the challenging days, months and years to come, work through us to bring relief and respite from urgent need, comfort and the hope of peace for those who grieve the loss of family, home and safety, and faith to walk on through weary days of rebuilding. May we be steadfast in love, stronger than death, and thus, with those whose lives we seek to sustain, together bear witness to your redeeming love. Amen.

You may make a donation to support the relief effort by using the PDA envelope in the pew rack or by giving online. Please make checks payable to Westminster Presbyterian Church, and write PDA-Disaster in the memo line.

Listening as an act of love—Listening is one of the most significant ways to be a friend to people around you. To listen with an attentive and receptive heart is a gift of great value. In this Stephen Ministry Continuing Education event, we will name and practice together some listening skills that will deepen our relationships with persons with whom we interact—our family, our neighbors, the groups to which we belong—and our caring ministry. Anyone interested in developing listening skills is invited. Please join us on October 17 at 6:00 p.m. in the West Parlor. Stephen Leader, Margaret Haney, will guide our interactions.

Please RSVP to Brittany by Monday, October 22.

ADULT EDUCATION

Adult Education Classes Conclude Today

11:20 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

Panels Panelling: What's Going on at WPC — taught by Richard Baker (West Parlor). A series of five panel discussions highlighting ministries and programs at WPC, ranging from music to mission to fellowship. It's a great way to get the inside scoop about what's going on at Westminster. This week, we'll discuss fellowship at Westminster—the fun, the friendship, and the faith of it. Join us as a panel of people who are actively involved in fellowship events talk about what fellowship at Westminster has meant to them in their lives and for their faith.

Jesus Means Freedom — taught by Larry Welborn (Chapel). As Paul told the Galatians, "For freedom Christ has set us free." The God of the Bible is the One who called a people out of bondage to Pharaoh in Egypt, and who still leads us out of structures of oppression, which constrain the full humanity intended in creation. This series explores the liberating dimensions of Jesus' ministry: healing, exorcism, proclamation of God's kingdom, action against the temple, and radical yes-saying to God. The stories of Jesus' liberating actions open our hearts, leading us to true freedom.

Term II Classes Begin Next Sunday, October 21

The following classes will be offered: Christmas and Consumerism, taught by Elizabeth Herr; Stories for Grown-Ups: The Non-Narnia Fiction of C.S. Lewis, taught by Richard Baker; Preparing for Tomorrow Today, taught by Sue Hamilton (brochures listing weekly topics and speakers are available in the Narthex). See next week's bulletin for full descriptions of each class.

DONATIONS

Our iPad giving kiosks are located in the Narthex near the Sanctuary doors. They accept contributions for any program of the church. Donations may be made by Visa, Master Card, or Discover credit cards. Donations may even be made anonymously.

Use your smart phone to scan the QR code on the back cover of the bulletin to visit our website and donate now electronically.

INFANTS AND CHILDREN

Infants and Toddlers (Infant - 4 years old) are cared for from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in Room 108. Parents of infants are provided a beeper by the nursery staff in case immediate communication is needed while they worship in the Sanctuary. During the worship hour, they take part in an activity and enjoy a snack.

We welcome young children to worship in our Sanctuary at Westminster today with cloth worship bags freshly stocked with new quiet, worship-related activities, including a Children's Bulletin and felt board designed specifically for today's service. Not all bags are the same! Next week, your child will likely find a different, new activity inside his or her bag. The bags can be found in a basket on a bench in the Narthex (main Sanctuary entrance) and upstairs in the balcony. All children are invited to use one throughout the worship time and then return the bag to its original location, taking the papers home with them.

Pre-K and Kindergarteners are invited to Children and Worship, a unique and interactive introduction to the stories and practices of our faith. As the second hymn begins, these children will be met in the Narthex (main Sanctuary entrance) and escorted to Room 102. Children and Worship concludes at 11:30 a.m. From there, children will be escorted to Genesis Singers (Pre-K) in Room 104 and Cherub Choir (K) in the Theater. Children not attending choir need to be met by their parents at 11:30 a.m.

Children in grades 1 and 2 are invited to attend Come and See/Godly Play, a unique and interactive worship experience for younger elementary children. As the second hymn begins, these children will be met in the Narthex (main Sanctuary entrance) and escorted to Room 104. From there, they will be led by their shepherds to their CrossRoads workshops at 10:55 a.m.

CrossRoads: Education for the Journey features varied and engaging activities for children in first through sixth grade, 10:55-11:30 a.m. Today children continue the five-week workshop, "Creation – From Chaos to Order." As the final hymn begins, children are invited to meet their age-group shepherds in the Narthex (main Sanctuary entrance) and be escorted to their workshops. Choir children will be escorted directly to their rehearsals. Other children may be picked up from their workshops at 11:30 a.m. Workshop location signs are posted in the Narthex and on the stage in Fellowship Hall.
